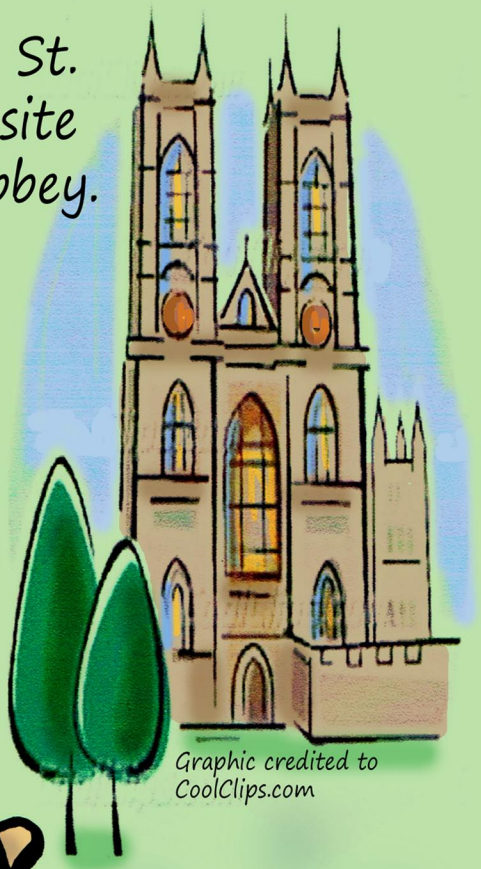
Catholic Online
INFORM - INSPIRE - IGNITE

SAINTS FUN FACTS

Written & Illustrated by John Sheppard

Edward was the first Anglo-Saxon and the only King of England to be canonised. During his reign he built St. Peter's abbey at Westminister, the site of the present day abbey.



Graphic credited to CoolClips.com

His piety gained him the surname "the Confessor."

SHEPPARD

Saints Fun Facts© - Copyright 2015 Catholic Online – All Rights Reserved catholic.org